

6. Are my grades high enough to be accepted for the training program that I desire?

Yes I believe I do.

7. What high school courses should I take, (or should I have taken - seniors) as a prerequisite for this career?

Psychology - (and did!!) there closely Related,
if one of the same

8. Will I need to take the ACT or SAT test as an admission requirement? Yes

• If so when should I take this test (s) When you want the degree ASAP!!

• What score will I need to likely be accepted to this school 22

9. What activities should I be involved in to better my chances of success in this career?

There not thinks to be involuzd in, I have to go/ask Someone and observe them. Ask myself why/what events made that person think that way or ack es such
Go to a ball game and studik the crowd, see what they like/what they dont.

10. How can I apply for admission to this program? By what date?

11. What is the cost of tuition or other costs to obtain my education/training?

Depending online or campus but its usually around the Average 7000 - 1000 a year

12. What types of financial aid is available specific to this school? Be specific about at least two scholarships.

~~There are many types of financial aid available~~
I might get a grant but dont I can get a scholarships

Mandatory: Submit a copy of the information you have found and used to answer the above questions. If you have no information, you have not correctly completed this assignment and will receive no credit for your plan of action.